

Change Management

ID: S PC.1

Purpose: To ensure that there is a control for all changes made

Outcome:

1. Change requests are recorded
2. Change requests are analysed

Configuration Management

ID: S PC.2

Purpose: To maintain accurate information for all configurations and to identify and control all components in the service

Outcome:

1. Items requiring configurations are identified

Service Control Process

SPC.1: Change Management

SPC.2: Configuration Management

Supply and Demand Processes

SAD.1: Budgeting and Accounting for Services

SAD.2: Demand Management

SAD.3: Capacity Management

Budgeting and Accounting for Services

ID: S AD.1

Purpose: Ensure that all financial activities are visible and controlled

Outcome:

1. Budgets are produced using cost estimates
2. Costs are monitored against budgets

Demand Management

ID: S AD.2

Purpose: To estimate the level of demand for the service in order to align and adjust capacity as needed

Outcome:

1. Current demand and consumption of services is identified

Capacity Management

ID: S AD.3

Purpose: To ensure that there is sufficient resource to meet the current and future demand for the service and performance requirement

Outcome:

1. Capacity requirements are identified

Process Reference Model for Service Management

1. Leadership Processes
2. Common Processes
3. Relationship and Agreement Processes
4. Service Delivery Processes
5. Service Design, Build, and Transition Processes
6. Resolution and Fulfilment Processes
7. Service Control Processes